Secure access anytime, anywhere

With an increase in the number of mobile workers, the ability to have secure access to email, address book and tasks anytime, anywhere is essential. Mirapoint's WebMail makes secure email access possible via any web browser, using Mirapoint's rich WebMail interface which offers a highly productive user experience from any location.

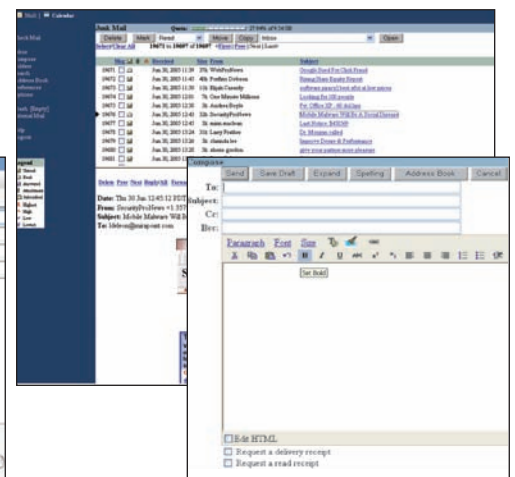

Mirapoint's WebCal is a richly featured web-based calendar that can be integrated into Mirapoint's WebMail interface for users looking for a highly reliable solution for online collaboration.

Built by the messaging experts

Mirapoint's WebMail is available in two editions. The Corporate Edition offers a professional look and feel available in different color themes with the flexibility to include corporate logos or hyperlinks into the brand. WebMail Standard Edition is built with performance and scalability in mind with more extensive branding options available.
